2. CHAIRMAN

PHILIPPINE RETIREMENT AUTHORITY

Office of the President, Republic of the Philippines

August 1992 to June 30, 1998

- Successfully reorganized the PRA, cleansing it of undesirable officers and staff.
- Transforming and saving the entire office from the threshold of abolition due to non-performance into one of President Ramos' CENTERS of EXCELLENCE within a year's time.
- Successfully turned around the financial operations of the Authority from bankruptcy into a financially healthy and profitable institution.
- Was instrumental in winning for the country the distinction of being voted as "THE NUMBER 1 RETIREMENT DESTINATION IN THE WORLD" in 1997.

3. BOARD MEMBER (Representing the Office of the President, Republic of the Phils.) EASTERN TELECOMMUNICATION PHILS. INC.)
September 1992 to August 30, 1998 – Facilitated the settlement of the government claim over the ill-gotten wealth issue of Marcos.

4. PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT FOR LEGAL AND JUDICIAL AFFAIRS
(UNDERSECRETARY RANK)

Office of the President, Republic of the Philippines

Malacanang Palace, Manila

July 15, 1992 to June 30, 1998

- Advised and recommended to the President of the Philippines appointments to the Judiciary (Justices, judges and fiscals).
- Supervised and managed the Presidential Legal office, and successfully disposed of all work backlog prior to President Ramos' term of office.
- Successfully managed the disposition of cases of major importance to the government and won the case; cases involving BILLIONS of pesos in favor of the government.
e.g. National Steel Corporation
COCOLEVY case
Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP) land case
ETPI – vs – PLDT case
- Tasked by President FVR to help the Cultural Center of the Phils. (CCP) win its case to retain ownership of 55 hectares of its land in the now CGP complex. Successful.

- Filed a case in the Supreme Court with Patricia Sison and Senators Osmena, Flavier, and Biazon where we successfully stopped a negotiated sale between SSS and Banco de Oro. We successfully earned for the SSS the additional amount of P10B that BDO had to pay.
- Recently successfully prevented Radstock headed by Carlos Dominguez from taking over P18B worth of PNCC property through a negotiated compromise agreement. Supreme Court has ruled that the agreement is void for being grossly disadvantageous to the government. Will prosecute those involved.
- Was a member of the President's CORE Advisory Group.

5. CHAIRMAN

MANAGEMENT SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE:

Audit Operation of the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) For Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT) 1986

- Conducted the audit on PLDT for the purpose of identifying the shares of former President Ferdinand E. Marcos constituting a part of his hidden wealth.
- Supreme Court finally ruled after 20 years that the shares of the family of Ramon Cojuangco did in fact belong to President Marcos and therefore part of his ill gotten wealth.

RESULT: SUCCESSFUL!

6. CHAIRMAN

INTEGRITY BOARD, Department of Trade and Industry
1988 - 1990

- Conducted investigations into the hearing complaints and cases filed against DTI officers and employees for alleged graft and corruption.
- Successfully prosecuted one of the biggest dealers in garments quotas given by the Garments and Textiles Export Board (GTEB)

7. CHAIRMAN

PRESIDENTIAL MULTI-SECTORAL TASK FORCE IN FISCAL PLANNING
POLICY (Under the Secretary of Finance Jaime V. Ongpin)
1987

- Main Task – to formulate recommendations on ways to increase government revenues and reduce government expenditure.
- Formulated recommendations on ways to increase government revenues and reduce government expenditure.
- Successfully launched a nationwide consciousness-raising project encouraging consumers to demand official receipts for purchasing thus ensuring better tax collection. This project, a RAFFLE is still presently in force, continues to grant prizes in millions of pesos.
